

2cTHE DAY BOOKAn Adless Newspaper,
Daily Except Sunday2c*ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mass meeting will be held tonight, 8 p. m., at 3725 W. Division st. (Socialist headquarters), for purpose of establishing a labor school on Northwest Side and enlisting new members and students. Admission free.

Entertainment and smoker will be held at 1001 W. Madison, auspices of Local 852, tonight.

Dr. J. H. Greer will give illustrated lecture on "The Venereal Peril" tonight at Hobo College, 917 W. Washington blvd.

Sunday's meeting of Workers' University society at Garrick theater, 2:30 p. m., will be devoted to evolution topics. Arthur M. Lewis will give an illustrated lecture, "Evolution and Plants, Animals, Man and Stars." Clarence Darrow will deliver a tribute to the memory of Prof. J. Howard Moore, evolutionist.

Free civic concert, Garfield Park refectory, Sun., 3 p. m. Musical program under direction of Alfred W. Bentz. Chorus choir. Rev. F. J. Martin, pastor Jefferson Park Presbyterian church, will speak.

"How Old Is Man?", a Theosophical discourse by Julia K. Sommer, Besant hall, 116 S. Michigan, Sun., 3:30 p. m.

A. W. Gossard will address 13th Ward Boys' Clean Life league, Garfield Park refectory, Sun., 2 p. m.

West Side People's Forum, Robey and Warren av., 7:45 p. m., Sun. Andre Tridon, New York, will talk on "The Mexican Problem."

South Side People's Forum, Oakwood blvd. and Langley av., Sun., 4 p. m. Andre Tridon talks on "The Mexican Problem."

Lawndale Civic Center will give second annual ball at Douglas Park auditorium, Ogden and Kedzie avs., Sunday.

Universalist Church of the Redeemer, Robey and Warren av., Rev. Fred A. Moore preaches, Sun., 10:45 a. m., "The Gospel of Beauty."

Sirfessor Wilkesbarre will speak on "Birth Control" at Colonial hall, 110 W. Randolph, Sun. eve., 8 p. m.

Economic Forum meets Sun., 8 p. m., at 20 W. Randolph. Lucy E. Parsons will speak. Subject, "The Mexican Situation—What the Mexican People Are Fighting For."

Dr. Alexander J. McIvor-Tyndall will discuss "What the World Most Needs" before the International New Thought Fellowship in Hall 210, Masonic Temple, Sun., 11 a. m.

International Educational club meets Sun., 7 p. m., at Workers' Institute. Caleb Harrison will speak.

Maxwell Bodenheim will give readings from his verse at Liberty hall, 2941 Indiana av. All interested in New Poetry invited.

At Monday luncheon of the Woman's City club, Auditorium hotel, Bion J. Arnold will discuss local transportation problem and A. S. Baldwin will talk on I. C. ordinance.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Prices irregular. Trading slow.

WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair and continued cold tonight; lowest temperature about zero; Sunday fair; not quite so cold in afternoon; moderate to fresh west to northwest winds this afternoon and tonight. Temperature Friday: High, 21; low, 5.